

NCJW's mission is to advance social and economic justice for all women, children and families. We achieve our goals through, Advocacy, Community Service, Education Community Organizing and Leadership Training

It is time to join or renew your annual membership in NCJW***
Thank you for your support of NCJW. We are only strong with your participation.

As a member of NCJW, Sacramento Section, you help to provide services and advocate for issues important to women, children and families.

NCJW gives you the opportunity to:

- Meet like-minded women and make new friends
- Support programs like Bridge to Success
- Be part of an activist advocacy team helping to make the world better for women, children and families
- Participate in engaging "Mitzvah in a Minute" community service projects
- Have fun and enjoy educational programs

Membership entitles you to receive invitations and eblasts to a broad range of local events and programs and to receive the quarterly BULLETIN.

If you would like to join or renew by mail, please clip and send the form below along with a check payable to NCJW to: NCJW Sacramento Section, P.O.
