

JOIN US ON AUGUST 23, 2020

RE-ENVISIONING PUBLIC SAFETY AND POLICING IN SACRAMENTO

Presented by NCJW Sacramento and Congregation B'nai Israel's Racial Justice Committee

Find out how you can make a difference and support policing reforms.

ACTIONS CAN MAKE CHANGE HAPPEN.

Recognizing the public's demand for zero tolerance of police brutality and racism, Sacramento's Mayor, the City Council and the California State Assembly are addressing creative proposals for enhancing public safety and reforming policing practices in our community.

Re-Visioning Public Safety and Policing In Sacramento is presented by National Council of Jewish Women (NCJW) Sacramento and Congregation B'nai Israel's Racial Justice Committee.

3:00 p.m. – 4:30 p.m.

The webinar will be held online via ZOOM. Can't access ZOOM?
Join by phone. Zoom meeting times and event details will be shared upon registration.

Visit

<https://ncjwsac.org/events/> for event and RSVP information.

Speakers

State Assembly member Kevin McCarty, District 7

Sacramento City Council Member Allen Warren, District 2

Mario Guerrero, Chair, Sacramento Community
Police Review Commission

NCJW®

National Council of Jewish Women Sacramento Section