CALIFORNIA "JUSTICE" BALLOT PROPOSITIONS- 2020

THIS YEAR BALLOT PROPOSITIONS WILL HAVE A MAJOR IMPACT ON JUSTICE AND FAIRNESS IN CALIFORNIA: HEAR EXPERTS SPEAK ON THREE OF THESE PROPOSITIONS.

WEBINAR - SEPTEMBER 22, 7:00 P.M. - 8:30 P.M.

Prop 15 introduces a split roll tax on commercial properties to lessen the harmful impacts of the earlier Prop 13 which created severe state revenue shortfalls, disproportionately hurting the poor through insufficient funding of schools and communities. Speakers: Sophia Lanza-Weil is the Field Director for Yes 15: Schools and Communities First and Lenny Goldberg, former Executive Director, California Tax Reform Association for 30 years.

Prop 16 will prevent continuing discrimination against women and people of color, allowing gender, racial, ethnic and national origin diversity to be considered once again in public employment, contracting and higher education decisions. Speaker: Nancy Appel, California Legislative Director, Anti-Defamation League, Central Pacific Region

Prop 17 restores a person's right to vote on completion of their prison term. Speaker: Shay Franco-Clausen, Campaign Manager for Yes on Proposition 17

More than ever we have to keep bending the arc toward justice and these Propositions are on that path.
